The World According to Motto

*Opening night, Thursday, February 4th
5:00 to 8:00 PM*

Broken Arrow watercolorist and GCWS member Greg Motto will be showing new and favorite work at Dana Jones Art in February. Meet this genteel artist and find out more about his process. During opening night, Motto will give a brief artist's talk on how he perfects his compositions.

Greg has been a long-time member of the Green Country Watercolor Society, Alpha Rho Tau, and OVAC. Greg seldom does solo shows, so this is a rare chance to see a large body of his work under one roof. Works in the genres of local scenery, landscapes, nature and abstracts will be offered for sale. The show will continue through February.

Gallery hours: Tuesday through Friday, 11-5

Learn from a Master Printmaker

Drypoint and monoprint techniques are demonstrated by instructor Tom Conrad and each student will create numerous prints on three consecutive Saturday mornings (9 a.m. until noon, Jan. 30 - Feb. 13).

If you've ever wanted to learn the printmaking process on the Intaglio press, this is the class for you!

Class cost: $65 (includes all materials)

Make checks payable to: City of Tulsa
